SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Pursuant to the Randolph-Sheppard Act (20 U.S.C. 107d-2(c)), the Secretary publishes in the Federal Register a synopsis of arbitration panel decisions affecting the administration of vending facilities on Federal and other property.

Background

The State of Nevada, Bureau of Services to the Blind, the State licensing agency (SLA), alleged that the Department of Interior, Bureau of Reclamation (Reclamation) violated the Randolph-Sheppard Act (the Act), pursuant to 20 U.S.C. 107 et seq. and implementing regulations in 34 CFR Part 395.

The SLA established three vending facilities under permit at the Hoover Dam near Boulder City, Nevada. Two of the vending facilities (the Hoover Dam Snacketeria and the Nevada Lookout Point, which is also known as the Hoover Dam Store) were established in 1981. The third location, known as the Arizona Lookout Point, was established in 1982.

The SLA's allegations are as follows: Reclamation notified the SLA of its intention to terminate the permits of the three facilities. Reclamation then sent the SLA, for its approval, a Special Use Agreement limited to 10 years and requiring the blind vendors to pay a fee of 10 percent of the gross sales in addition to rent.

Subsequently, the SLA was informed by Reclamation that it would solicit open bids for concessions at the Hoover Dam if the SLA did not sign the Special Use Agreement. In addition, the SLA discovered in January 1995 that Reclamation had operated vending machines at the Hoover Dam independently of the blind vendors since January 1, 1975. Reclamation had never paid the SLA vending machine income as required under the Act.

Conversely, Reclamation alleged as follows: The Randolph-Sheppard Act does not require vending facilities in the parking ramp or the Visitors Center and, therefore, the SLA may operate vending facilities at this site only upon terms that are mutually agreeable. Further, the Act does not require Reclamation to pay for alleged relocation and other costs attendant to any move that might occur. In addition, Reclamation is not responsible for more than 30 percent of any vending revenues at the Hoover Dam because the Visitors Center and parking ramp would house fewer than
